New Tribune Extras.

Arrangements for the Extra TRIBUNE have matured so as to give a regular edition, which can be had on the arrival of the Great Calumet, the value the result of the testimony before the Coroner's Jury.

Reorganized.

The Springfield (Ill.) Republican has been reorganized with financial embarrassment. Its editor says he regards it as an "ill wind" that blows no good paper, the Journal, and other newspapers. There was no political or party necessity for it. Springfield will not support two daily papers. The Republicans already had one good paper, the Journal, and it came out of the late Republican paper by the way the Journal has been in the central position, on the right side of politics, [illegible] deserves to be liberally supported.

Banks Coming Down.

We have three or tumbling down rents as well as other things. Good tenants are now in a position to dictate. A number of banks have given up the ghost in the course of the last week, and if financial pressure bearing with it the failing off in business of which we have noticed their rents, some of them would have to go by the prices charged last month would not pay the interest. It is pressing upon little hard, and of business men to forego altogether the enormous rentals exacted by their wealthy landlords, and that money which they were wont to expend in forward goods and merchandise will now be profitably and less generous. Nor is it merely right or just to confer legal coercion upon some of them their exorbitant demands.

Vacant rooms and storerooms now to be had from $1 to $5 per week, cheaper than was asked six months ago. One instance came under our observation this week, of a store room in a fine location fronting on South Water street, being rented for $1,000, for which the owner demanded $500 last spring. Rents must come down to a par with the position of trade.

What Stock Sells Twelve.

Pasted upon the door inside of the city, yesterday, was a flaming yellow-jacket head bill, printed in English and German, announcing, at the head of the list—"Sows with the Black Republican Ticket." Below this was the announcement that the black Republican ticket would be sold at auction, at 10 A. M. to-day, by the undersigned, for the purpose of nominating a whole-hog ticket for the County Convention, and [illegible] ticket.

The Utah Party in Mass Convention.

A Sketch of the Proceedings.

In accordance with an announcement placarded about the streets, the Utah wing of the Amalgamation party in this city, met in Mass Convention at South Market Hall yesterday forenoon. The meeting was called by the Utahites, for the purpose of nominating candidates to be beaten at the coming election of County officers, that faction not having been consulted by the "United Snowhookites and Douglasites" when the nominations were parcelled out at the secret caucus held last week.

When we entered the Hall, a number of the "faithful," to keep within bounds any fifty, had gathered together, and were earnestly discussing the condition of the Union and trading for votes in the Convention. Among the more prominent of the congregation we noticed, during the session, Col. Diversey, L. D. Wilkinson, Esq., Judge Drummond, ex-Ald. Howe, Dr. Leib, Geo. T. Foster, Esq., C. S. Cameron, Esq., Capt. J. W. Casnett, Col. W. H. Davis, Capt. Shirley and Dr. Kimberly, of the Utahites; Col. W. B. Snowhook, Sunlit McClery, Dr. Max Myers, Thos. Hoyne, Esq., Ald. Coughlin, Ald. Cooley, John F. Gibbons, Esq., and Ald. Ira Bon, of the United Snowhookites and Douglasites. Messrs. Prendergast, O'Malley and Ford, of the latter faction, were not present, having a pressing engagement elsewhere. The Utahites were in a large majority, and, as they had called the meeting, were determined to have things their own way.

At the appointed hour Mr. Wilkinson called the meeting to order, and proposed Col. Diversey for Chairman, which was agreed to. While the Chairman was elbowing his way to the stand through the armed factions, Ald. Cooley moved that a couple of Douglasites be elected Vice Presidents; whereupon a Utahite suggested that he was too fast. Col. Diversey having reached the platform, Capt. Shirley nominated Col. Speed and Judge Allen as Vice Presidents. Ald. Cooley insisted that his motion had precedence, but Shirley very coolly intimated that the Alderman was in the wrong box, and the Chairman gave Cooley and his motion the go-by.—After some confusion Shirley's motion prevailed, and Gen. W. Brizee and W. B. Spencer were elected Secretaries.

The organization being perfected, Mr. Wilkinson moved that the Chairman appoint a committee of thirteen to select candidates. This was crowding things rather too fast for Snowhook. He suggested that it would be better to wait until at least one hundred persons were present, and moved a substitute for Wilkinson's motion.

The Chairman gave Snowhook a decided intimation to cool off for a few minutes but not interrupt the meeting, and ruled the substitute out of order. Mr. Wilkinson's motion was then put and prevailed carried. A Mr. Kelly demanded a division, but the Chairman refused to entertain any request of that kind.

Mr. Wilkinson moved that a committee of seven be appointed to prepare resolutions indicative of the "feelings" of the meeting. Carried.

Mr. Kelly asked to be excused from acting with the Convention. As nobody took any notice of Mr. Kelly's request he scrubbed into his coat collar.

The Chair announced the following as the principal portion of the Utahites, canvassed touching the committee. While this was going on, the Snowhookites were running about the Hall, consulting as to how they should act under the difficult circumstances in which they were placed. Meantime some three hundred persons had collected and the noise and confusion increased at a 2:40 pace.

After a deal of thumping from the Chairman's cane, in which operation he was vigorously assisted by the Vice-Presidents, and cries of "order, order" long continued, a hundred pairs of lungs "order" was at last obtained, and the Secretary read the names of the committee. It was found that but three of the committee were present and a new one must be appointed.

Col. Snowhook moved "that the Convention proceed to the consideration of substitutes". The Chairman having very busy fixing up the new committee could not hear him for the noise and the great Patlander was again sucked by the party Totum.

After a deal of fussing and fixing up, the chairman announced the following as the Committee on nominations: Dr. Chas. Leib, Henry Calmers, Wm. Carpenter, Wm. R. Davis, Jas. J. Nengle, Theo. Weiler, L. Baer, C. L. Seiferd, Jo. Schloesman, Theo. Lonergan, L. W. Montgomery, B. F. Shorter and C. Lowes.

On motion, the Chairman was added to the committee.

The Committee then withdrew, and remained before the Chairman, the Committee on Resolutions was announced—L. D. Wilkinson, Thos. Hoyne, Louis Isbell, Thomas Hoyne and C. S. Cameron.

The Nominating Committee, headed by Dr. Leib, then started in a body for the auto-room at the end of the hall, but finding the door locked some little confusion ensued. At this moment about half the Convention made a rush towards the Committee, evidently under the impression that a fight was in progress, and another scene of confusion followed which baffled description. Finding there was limited chance of a general row, the Doctor announced in a voice which was heard above the din, that the Nominating Committee would assemble at Schlosman's Saloon. Partial quiet was finally restored, when Mr. Walsh moved that a keg of lager bier be provided for the use of the Committee. This motion did not receive a second.

Capt. Casnett being called upon for a speech stated that he was authorized by Gen. W. Thomas, candidate for County Judge on the straight ticket, to submit his name to the Convention on the Utah ticket, and, Capt. C. proceeded to deliver a highly ornate eulogium upon the personal and political character of his friend.

Mr. Wilkinson from the committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Resolved, That the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States, and the history of the Democratic party, are the three great lights by which to govern our political action.

Resolved, That the Democratic party is due all the honor of bringing the country to its present populous and prosperous condition.

Resolved, That we are opposed to all intangible alliances with foreign nations, and equally opposed to all political alliance or compromises with our political opponents at home.

Resolved, That we most heartily approve and support the administration of James Buchanan, as a purely Democratic administration, and the great principles of Democracy, and Constitution, and a perpetual guarantee that we, our children, and our children's children, shall ever enjoy the blessings of civil, religious and political liberty.

At this stage of the proceedings, cries became prevalent for La Rue. This individual, slightly unsteady in general appearance, but overcharged with Democracy, mounted the rostrum and delivered himself of an ornate and grammatical address:

LA RUE SPEAKS.

Friends and Democrats: I am happy to see so large a meeting of genuine Democrats at this meeting. My friends, practical Democracy and practical Democrats is a different thing! I see before me a large number of practical Democrats. That, my friends is not a different thing!! This meeting is called to nominate a pure, straight out Democratic ticket.

(The speaker did not inform his audience what that was a different thing or the same thing.)

Gentlemen, it is admitted on all sides that the party is disorganized. Are you satisfied with disorganization? No, gentlemen, you are not. I had hoped, gentlemen, that it would not be necessary to make any nominations at this time, and to-day I had intended to have stated, that the most nominations would be necessary at this late hour! And not only did I think they would be unnecessary but other Democrats did. The great bond of our party has consolidated that any new nominations would be defeated at the ballot box, and we were defeated, but that defeat was passed at our last election! I am told you gentlemen. We did not nominate our ticket until the day before election, and the Black Republicans did not get their tickets printed and the present administration is in power. And what kind of an Administration is it? (I will tell you presently); it is the most reliable administration that ever existed.

My friends, I have never voted anything but the regular Democratic ticket and I voted now for our Democratic Superintendent [ask God Almighty to knock me out of existence] (Tremendous applause.) Now we must get up a ticket which can be elected. The Abolitionists have got up a ticket. The Administration ticket will overthrow Black Republicanism in Chicago. And what is Black Republicanism in Chicago? Some of the Times is not a Republican paper in Chicago that ever has a word that isn't dictated by Lo-co-Foco. [Laughter.] Some of the Times, and because anything was to be made by it, but just to keep his head up.] My friends put none but Democrats on the ticket.

The noise here became uproarious and Dr. Drummond, Ald. Cooley and Col. Diversey mounted the platform and gave place to the whimpers of the gentleman from Salt Lake.

UTAH SPEAKS.

Fellow Citizens, we read that it was customary at the Jewish feasts to keep the good wine till the last, and as the present meeting is the finale of the day with the gentleman from Salt Lake in mind, but the error elicited no comment.) They were not all Democrats present, and the Chair had to call them to order; but by so doing, they were not getting happy now. [Applause from the entry.] Democrats, I am happy to see you here to-day. I see on this ticket [Here] is the name of Dr. Leib for Coroner, and another on the ticket (Gibbons) is looking off in another direction and somewhere else. [Loud Democratic applause.] Is it a third and opposite direction? Is that the way to unite the Democratic party of the city of Jefferson? [Cries, Yes, Yes from the 10th and Seventeenth Wards, Fox River, Hyde Park and Jefferson.] Democrats, gentlemen, is it not the Democratic party of the great party of the United States that is about to be overthrown? Is it not the platform of the Democratic party? It is to be hoped that a solid phalanx be formed.

The Chairman here reminded the representative of Utah, that the Committee on Resolutions were not appointed to report.

Mr. Utah stepped aside, and resumed the conduct of his duty as chairman or speech to the Democratic gentlemen.

The following named candidates were proposed by the Committee: Asa Vose, County Clerk; M. Gleason, Treasurer; Geo. Davis, County Clerk; Y. A. Boyer, School Commissioner; Chas. Herrickind, Surveyor; Owen McCarthy and D. C. Buttle, Justices.

Dr. Leib made a brief and forcible speech, which was somewhat cheered, and moved that the candidates be nominated by acclamation.—Carried.

Rosey came Leib's tears to harangue. He did not rise to speak on the question of the report. He was only grieved that Thompson, whom he knew to be an out-and outer for Democratic principles had not been put on the ticket. He mourned for Thompson. He supposed that Thompson's connection with a damnable lodge of that party—

Dr. Leib rose to correct the speaker. Mr. Thompson's connection with Know Nothing Lodges had not been made a subject of discussion in the Committee.

A prominent candidate for the Sheriff's office at the door, here created a disturbance by shouting for LaRue. Mr. LaRue camped to go on, but was interrupted by a man named Kelly, who rose in front of the principal orator and insisted on making a speech. Mr. Kelly's talk was incoherent and suggested to his audience that he had not been sober in a good while. He had not proceeded far when several others claimed the floor and inaugurated short speeches in the bulk of Mr. Kelly's speech. The din now became general and many ragacious observations were lost in the confusion. The most noticeable result was the subsidence of LaRue.

Ald. Cooley moved to adjourn, but the cries of "Speed, Speed," so diverted the attention of Col. Speed, who was pressing for the Chairman, that he didn't hear the motion.

Mr. Cameron moved a vote of thanks to the Chairman—carried. (This was Cameron's only peep.)

Another effort was made to adjourn, but Drummond wanted three cheers given for the ticket, and could not be paralled until the cheers were given.

Col. Speed then made a short speech, remarkable for the oddity of its grammar and other things.

Dr. Leib moved that a committee of five be appointed to announce the meeting and Secure speakers. The Chairman named Dr. Leib, M. Diversey, W. B. Davis, J. J. Naegle and Ald. Cooley.

Augusta Fay moved that he make a speech and the motion being put and carried Mr. Fay mounted the rostrum and plunged in with an energy which entirely threw into the shade the puny efforts of those who preceded him. Among other interesting things said by the speaker was—"I'm sin to der South un I knows dey majors ish peiter off as any body in dish room"; also, "If a mans as stheel und fifty seats goes to dar Bridewells, but if schools two million dollar him let you go."

After Mr. Fay subsided there were loud calls for Schad—e but that redoubtable gentlemen was not forthcoming.

The meeting then adjourned sine die.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.—This Court is engaged in the trial of criminal cases. The following cases have been disposed of:

John C. Miller was tried and convicted for forgery the jury fixing his term of imprisonment at one year. The indictment alleges that on the 4th day of September, 1850, the defendant forged the signatures of Minkel Divers to a promissory note for the payment of $187 to Aaron Gibbs, and also to a power of attorney accompanying said note (commonly known as as a judgment note.) The indictment was found in December, 1853, at which time the defendant was out of the jurisdiction of the court, and his whereabouts not known. Two or three years subsequently, the defendant not being found, the indictment was dropped from the docket, and the case remained in this position until the return of the defendant to Chicago, which in March, 1857, it was reinstated on the docket.

John Norris, alias McGovern was convicted of an assault with intent to kill Francis McNamara, in the town of Palos. The jury fixed his term of imprisonment at seven years. Norris hid in a clump of bushes, near the road side and shot McNamara with a double barrelled shot gun while the latter was driving quietly in his wagon. McNamara is an old man and had discharged Norris from his employ which was doubtless the cause of the difficulty.

The case of Peter Bellew, indicted for assaulting Peter Jones with an axe, was being tried when the Court adjourned last evening. The affray occured on the day of McCarty for the murder of Charles Asher; at the last municipal election, commenced trudge. The trial will occupy several days, probably.

A DOUBTFUL OPERATION.—Editors Tribune: I understand from good authority that there is a subscription now in circulation purporting to be for the benefit of "Eagine Company No. 1." I am informed by one of those called upon that the circulator of said subscription has received a very considerable amount of money for the benefit of said Company. I wish to inform the public through your columns that no subscription of the kind has been authorized by said company, and the person circulating the same is an imposter and should be arrested as such by the first person to whom he applies. Whenever said company ask assistance from the public, the names of their Pitwsan and Secretary will be appended to their application, and unless there, all may rest assured that the same is bogus.

P. A.—Bogus,

Fireman Fire King Engine Co. No. 1.

DR. HAYS.—Our Young Men's Association have engaged Dr. Hays as one of their lecturers for the season, and we learn that he intends lecturing in other places in the West. The New York Journal of Commerce announces a paper to be read by him before the American Geographical Society of New York, upon "Access to the North Pole by Kane's Sea," and it is understood that he proposes to set on foot another expedition to the Arctic Seas, with the view of continuing the explorations of Dr. Kane, and to reach the north Polar axis of our Earth.

URAN CASSERTER DOCUMENT.—We are informed that the following interesting candidates were elected at the Convention yesterday: Asa Vose declined to run; Y. A. Boyer, School Commissioner; George Davis, County Clerk; Chas. Herrickind, Surveyor.

Poor Diversey—my pity him. The Douglasites got the start of him in his own convention yesterday, and, under pretence of being genuine Utahites, wheedled him into nominating a parcel of men who were pledged beforehand to withdraw in favor of the nominal Seher. Will the honest, honor Germans submit to this back-hand swindle?

LARCENY OF CLOTHING.—Margaret McBride was arrested by officer Chilson yesterday and brought before the Police Court, upon a charge of stealing $30 worth of clothing from the trunks of some lodgers at the house corner of Buffalo and Liberty streets, where she boarded. The accused gave bail in the sum of $200 to answer in the Recorder's Court.

MCNALLY has Frank Leslie's Illustrated News, with a graphic representation of the great fire in this city; also, Chambers' Journal for September.

SPLENDID COACHES AT AUCTION.—James A. Marshall, Esq., sells this morning at 10 o'clock, in front of his store room, No. 56 Dearborn street, his splendid run carriages of most superior workmanship.

GRUBB & GILBERT, auctioneers, 104 Lake street, will sell this Thursday morning at 9 1-2 o'clock, a large lot of cased liquors and cigars. Also, a lot of sundry fixtures, consisting of counters, lumbering, settees, &c., &c.

INFORMATION WANTED concerning the whereabouts of Joseph Home. The said Joseph Home left Western Vermont about twenty-eight years ago for some part of the West; is now about sixty-six years old, 6 feet 1 inch; medium height; left hand entirely stiff, so that in walking he keeps the leg straight. Any information relative to the above will be gratefully received by a circle of relatives. Direct to Charles Home, Belvidere, Boone County, Illinois.

THURSDAY MORNING.....OCTOBER 29.

HOW THEY TALK IN UTAH.

A Sermon Delivered at Salt Lake city.

How the Mormons relish the appointment of Gov. Cumming, and the expedition which is to put him in power, may be learned from the following extracts from a sermon delivered to the faithful, at Salt Lake City, and reported at full length in the Mormon paper:

[From the Deseret News, Sept. 9.]

DISCOURSE BY PRES'T. HEBER C. KIMBALL, SUNDAY MORNING, AUG. 30, 1857.

You must expect when you see Bro. Heber stand before you to speak, that you will hear what is called the rough etchel to this generation.

* * * * * * *

I want to tell some of my feelings here today, in a few words, relative to Brother Brigham. I tell him, brother, I shall only call him President before the Saints, in his calling; I was going to say before our enemies, but damn them, they shall never come here.

Excuse me, I never use rough words, only when I come in contact with rough things.

You all acknowledge brother Brigham as the President of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, then you acknowledge him as our Leader, Prophet, Seer and Revelator, and then you acknowledge him in every capacity that pertains to his calling, both in Church and State, do you not? (Voices: "Yes.")

Well, he is our Governor. What is a Governor? One who presides, or governs. Well, now we have declared in a legislative capacity that we will not have poor, rotten-hearted cusses come here from our nation, such as some they have been accustomed to send. We drafted a memorial, and the Council and the House of Representatives, endorsed it and sent to them the names of men of our choice, as many as from five to eight men for each office, men from our own midst, out of whom to appoint officers for this Territory.

We sent that number for the President of the United States to make a selection from, and asked him to give us men of our own choice, in accordance with the rights constitutionally guaranteed to all American citizens.

We just told them right up and down that if they sent any more cussed, miserable curses as some they had sent were, we would send them home, and that is one reason why an army, or rather a mob, is on the way here, as reported. You did not know the reason before, did you?

* * * * * * *

Now, gentlemen and ladies, you look at these things, and then right in the book, the Bible: it says, our rulers shall be of ourselves; that is, our Lords, our Governors, our Judges, our Marshals, and our everything shall be of ourselves. Won't you read the 30th chapter of Jeremiah?

21. And their nobles shall be of themselves and their Governor shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me; for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the Lord.

22. And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

23. Behold, the whirlwind of the Lord, goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind; it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked.

24. The fierce anger of the Lord shall not return, until he has done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

Well, the day has come when our Governor has come out of our midst and he is in the top of the mountains, just where the prophets said these things should come to pass, and now the United States are repented to be trying to force a Governor upon us when the Lord has raised one up right out of our midst.

* * * * * * *

I will now bring up a comparison. I live in the city of Great Salt Lake. I am a father, a husband, a brother, or between sixty and seventy subjects; I feed them, I clothe them, and they do not have a pin, a drink of tea, or anything but what I provide; I provide them houses to live in, and beds to sleep on. I suppose that by and by some stranger comes along, and my family say to him, "we will have you to preside over us," and they reject me who, at the same time they say, "Mr. Heber is a good man," but the other man comes with a smiling face, and reject me—what have they done? If they reject me they reject their head by so doing; and by the use of a bogus deed in the hand of some of my children, which will be in the habit of going every night to said Stephens Dolite's residence, and there slept with his widow; that Etienne Dolite told deponent that Savelli used to go to Deponent's house and strive to knock the wife of deponent's wife with his cane, thereby to excite her, had deponent's wife being Corsican intercourse of by him, told him that it was true that the priest had been in the habit of calling outside her to go and live with her mother, deponent says that his wife told him that these Savelli had made her propositions with a view to have carnal intercourse with her, that she was not a bit better than a bone, but that she had refused. John Dolite, knowing deponent to be acquainted with the above facts, told him on Friday the 24 October, and the following day, which was Saturday, and as he had no school to attend to, he would go to the house of Maximilien Martini, and there see the inhabitants, and tell them to watch Savelli, as he had threatened to kill and hang Mr. Savelli. Agreeably, I left the house and went with him.

We visited upon Messrs. Isadore Dolite, Pierre Bayon, Pierre Canet, Norbert Martin and Jean Marie Martin, John Dolite told them what we had come for, and that our intention was to kill Savelli. We then went to the Crystal by and John Dolite and one called for the same purpose as Victor Dennis. All these persons of deponent and John Dolite that they would call at the house of Stephens Dolite, the evening of Saturday, the night of October 24, when Mr. Savelli was talking with Mr. Etienne Dolite in the sitting room, and that they would enter the house, fasten and everything else, so that Savelli could not get away. Deponent and John Dolite then went to the house of Stephens Dolite, and there concealed themselves in the garden, and in a short time Savelli came out of the house, and deponent and John Dolite fired upon him, and he fell. Deponent and John Dolite then ran to the house of Maximilien Martini, and there met the inhabitants, and told
